

CHINESE VALENTINE'S DAY CHOCOLATE AND TEA PAIRING WORKSHOP

"Tea is drunk to forget the din of the world," said the Chinese philosopher T'ien Yiheng. This timeless beverage has been cherished for centuries, renowned for its rich flavours and calming effects. Chocolate, evolving from a bitter drink to a beloved treat, symbolizes indulgence and joy. Together, they offer unique sensory experiences that enhance our appreciation of flavour.

Chocolate pairs beautifully with various types of tea, such as rich dark chocolate with robust black tea or salted caramel dark chocolate pralines with fragrant longjing tea. In this workshop, participants will explore delicious combinations by tasting six exquisite chocolates alongside selected teas, gaining insights into effective pairing. The expert team will share knowledge on how to identify complementary flavours, encouraging you to appreciate the nuances of each pairing. Founder Cecilia from Pekoe&Petals, an Advanced Level Tea Craftsman, along with Chocolatiers Carolyn and Charles, will share their insights on identifying complementary flavours.

Whether you are a chocolate lover, a tea enthusiast, or a curious connoisseur, this workshop offers a unique opportunity to expand your palate. Don't miss the chance to join us and discover the delightful synergy of chocolate and tea!
